Cadet Liberty Policy

Overnight liberty will be granted to all cadets not in the duty section or administratively restricted over Parents Weekend. Liberty, for unrestricted cadets, will commence upon completion of the last military obligation on Friday, 19 September and will expire at 0815 on Saturday

Overnight liberty will be granted on Saturday at the completion of cadet march-on (with the exception of administratively restricted cadets) to expire on Sunda in accordance with the regular Sunday liberty policy. Restricted cadets may route a special request to their Company Officer for overnight liberty. All requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, but barring extraordinary circumstances will not be approved.

Administratively Restricted cadets may entertain guests in the Chase Hall Parents’ Room and in Leamy Hall per cadet guest schedule in the Cadet Regulations.

Parking/Shuttle Guidance

Parking for guests and parents will be at the Connecticut College south lot on Friday and Saturday. Shuttle service will provide transportation to and from the Connecticut College parking lot to Leamy Hall throughout the day on Friday and Saturday. The Connecticut College south lot is also within walking distance to the USCGA campus through the North pedestrian gate.

Saturday morning all staff, cadets, parents, and guests will be returning to USCGA around the same time. To alleviate traffic congestion around USCGA and Connecticut College, cadets and parents are reminded that the North pedestrian gate will open at 0700 and that cadets can also ride the shuttle from Connecticut College, starting at 0700.

Those parents and guests with a valid handicap parking permit will be allowed to park at Leamy Hall throughout the weekend. 1st Class cadets and parents will be authorized on base parking on Saturday only.

On Sunday the USCGA campus will be open to all parents and guest for athletic and religious events.

Getting Around USCGA and Weather

The terrain of the USCGA campus contains numerous hills. Parents and guests are encouraged to wear comfortable walking shoes for events throughout the weekend. Golf carts will be available to provide transportation to those needing assistance throughout the campus on Friday and Saturday.

The average temperatures for September in New London are highs in the 70s and lows in the 50s.
